DenverGoTopless Day Parade

Always SUNDAY closest to August 26th
to celebrate Women's Equality Day

10:30 AM – 3:00 PM

March starts at 12:00pm

( Arrive early for bodypainting )

CIVIC CENTER PARK

(Bannock St. Meadow)

12:00pm: We'll march down 16th Street Mall, then back to Civic Center Park, where we'll gather for group photos in front of the Capital Buildings. :-)

DENVER GOTOPLESS EVENTS ALWAYS STRESS THE FOLLOWING:

- No blocking traffic
- No "flash for cash" solicitations
- No sexual contact
- No sexual conduct
(i.e., no purposeful intent to arouse)

Denver's ordinances regarding public indecency all pertain to public sexual contact and those regarding indecent exposure pertain to genitals and buttocks. (Colorado indecency statutes include breasts only as related to public sexual contact)

DENVER MUNICIPAL CODES

CHAPTER 38, ARTICLE V, DIVISION 2, SEC. 38-157. – PUBLIC INDECENCY

- (a) It shall be unlawful for any person to perform an act of public indecency.

versus:

How women are portrayed in media has a huge effect on how women are viewed and treated in society. We swim in a sea of commercialized imagery where women's bodies are objectified and sexualized in pursuits of profits. "Sex sells" is the mantra, yet the fallout is grave: Double-standards, body-image issues, male entitlement, harassment, victim blaming, and rape culture.

Denver GoTopless breaks the cycle, by reminding us:

- While nudity and sexuality can overlap, they aren't the same thing.
- Dignity and respect should be based on behavior and context, not on skin.
- Instead of blaming & shaming, take responsibility for your own thoughts and actions.
- Denver GoTopless is merely advocating, for women, privileges that men already have.
